

Understanding What the Revised Draft CCPA Regulations Mean for Business

Feb 20, 2020

Reading Time : 1 min

Akin Gump published a client alert about the revised proposed regulations (Version 2) to the California Consumer Privacy Act made by the California Attorney General Office on February 7, 2020. Version 2 includes many changes and appears to respond to comments received on the prior version. There is not yet clear indication of when the final regulations will be released. The AGO will collect comments on the revised regulations until February 25, 2020. To read the full alert, please click here.
